MARTIN, Lex

I was born in Sydney and then after the 2nd world war came to WA with my parents. My education culminated with a diploma in agriculture from the Narrogin School of Agriculture. Since leaving school I have worked in the agriculture area. Working with Bayer, Elders and Cresco fertilizer. I developed a farm at Gingin where i was a Shire councillor for 12 years. On selling that i worked for the farmers federation for a short time. I was employed by Curtin University at Esperance and Charles Darwin University at Katherine. I have owned a house and lived in Gnowangerup on and off for the past 20 years. I have qualifications in horticulture, conservation and land management and agriculture. I have spent 6 years as a councillor of the Gnowangerup Shire from 2014 to 2019.
