Enrolment status	THOMPSON, Roslynn is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the Shire of Gnowangerup.

When I considered applying for nomination in Local Government, I carefully assessed my skills to be successful and provide the best representation for my community. I believe I have these skills. Now it is time for me to give back to the community that has given me a rich and fulfilling life.

I have lived in Ongerup for nearly thirty years, and in that time, I have been involved in many groups, participated in local events and made many new friends. This has provided me with a firsthand experience of what our community needs, values and deserves. I will be able to contribute effectively, engage with the community, communicate local views, lead and shape our community into the future.

My qualifications and nearly thirty years local teaching experience provides me with the necessary communication, time management and collaboration skills required. I have built effective working relationship, participated in analytical and effective planning; and contributed to decision making processes.
