The 18th of October saw a visit by the Commanding Officer of 2 Flight School Pearce to the Gnowangerup Aerodrome. Wing Commander Grant Taylor flew a Pilatus PC21 down from Pearce to carry out a GNSS approach and tyre abrasion test with the view of including Gnowangerup into the RAAF training program. Wing Commander Taylor gave favorable comments on both the facility and the runway test and felt that Gnowangerup would be suitable for inclusion to the training schedules.

Preservation Works on the printing presses in the Star building resulted in two presses be bought back into operation. Further clean up of old type set was also carried out.
